

Excerpt from Journal

Office of the Legislative Counsel

Friday - 12 May 1961

25X1

1. [redacted] Jim Hyde, Bureau of the Budget, telephoned on the Freedom Academy bill. He pointed out that ten senators had written to the President on this and it was being proposed that the President reply personally to their letter. The ten senators included such men as Mundt, Proxmire, Goldwater, and Douglas. Hyde indicated, however, that our proposed report on the bill was satisfactory and within a few days they would advise officially.

s/ John S. Warner
JOHN S. WARNER
Legislative Counsel

25X1

cc: [redacted]